

Tieasha Waddy – Destination Specialist

Tieasha Waddy is an international travel agent with over 10 years of experience in the industry. Tie was born and raised in Houston, Tx. I'm a mother of 4 children. I enjoy spending time with my husband and children. What you should know about me is I love life. I love that every day is a new day. What is most important to me is my relationship with God, family and my friends. God comes first in my life. I love him with all my heart. I am very traditional. I'm not perfect, but I am a work in progress. I love to laugh. The Lord is my true strength, my courage, and my heart. In Him alone I put my trust and faith. Because, He lives I can face all things, endure all things and praise Him with joy through all things. Tie has travel to many place like Jamaica Cozumel, Grand Cayman. Her love for travel is what prompted her into the travel industry, where she is dedicated to helping people plan a vacation of a lifetime. She believes in helping her clients, whether a group, family, couple, or individual, create a customized vacation package that suites their particular interests and tastes. This includes arranging their accommodations, extra amenities, special services, dining options, and planned excursions.

As a Destination Specialist, Tie is very familiar with all the accommodations, amenities and services offered by a luxury vacation resorts. As a specialist, she can also help clients make arrangements for special services like spa treatments, transportation, and candlelight dinners. She can also make pre-arrangement for special activities, including local tours, water or land sports, adventure tours, scuba diving, or a round of golf. Tie can assist couples in planning and organizing a wedding or honeymoon package at any of the luxury resorts.

Tie spent her most memorable vacation traveling throughout a Caribbean tour. She enjoyed touring the coast with all the water attractions. She is still planning her own dream vacations to Europe. This love for independent travel has helped make her an expert at helping others plan their own packages. She helps each customer create a specialized itinerary that is based on their specific interests and likes in order to plan a vacation that they will truly enjoy. She assists her clients by making any necessary arrangements, and plans complete an individualized package for each customer.