Hi all, I am so excited to be a part of this amazing world travel specialists! A little about me and why I decided to pursue this.

I have always loved travel and over the past 10 years I have traveled to places such as Poland, Austria, Aruba, Mexico, Antigua, Egypt, Italy, Madrid, Jerusalem, Ireland, South Africa, Kenya, Cameroon, just to mention a few!

I have decided to share some of my knowledge and hope to help others see the world! If I can do anything to help others live their dreams, whether it's a short trip to the Caribbean or an African Safari, I hope to make your dreams come true!
