

Jane Fencer– Destination Specialist/Owner

As the owner of World Travel Specialists, Jane Fencer has been in the travel industry for the past 15 years. Personally traveling to the Caribbean, Disney, Abu Dhabi, Seychelles Islands, Germany, France, Switzerland, Tahiti, Moorea, Bora Bora, Mexico, and Austria among others.

Jane has also inspected several ships including the world's largest cruise ship the Allure of the Seas and travels to Las Vegas several times throughout the year.

She has maintained high standards and accumulated various awards including the prestigious Commodore Level in both Princess and Cunard. She has completed the Royal Caribbean Academy, Azamara, Celebrity, Silversea, SeaBourn, Holland America, Hurtigruten, as well as the Carnival Academy just to name a few.

Among many of her accomplishments are certifications in Destination Wedding and Event Planning, Groups, Spa and Golf, African Safaris, Egypt, Jordan, Greece, Thailand, Iceland, Russia, Tahiti, all of the Caribbean Islands, Ireland, Italy, France, Mexico, Las Vegas Certified and a Disney Specialist.

As certified PADI and avid divers, Jane and her husband Colen have also incorporated a separate company called H2O Dive Travel that specializes in dive trips worldwide.

Jane also is the owner of Destinations by Design, a customized travel company. They custom make any travel arrangements with agents who specialize in certain areas of the world.

Jane is one of only 40 agents worldwide certified to sell space travel!

Jane has graduated from the Protocol School of Washington with a certification in event planning for military, corporate and consumers. She has also graduated from the American Academy of Wedding Planners.

Jane has booked trips from hostels to private islands; and her client list ranges from the average person to celebrities.

To view some of Jane's certifications, please go to:

<http://www.facebook.com/?ref=logo#!/media/set/?set=a.2765440662046.145989.1438785319&type=3>