

Casey Vazquez – Destination Specialist

While planning my destination wedding for 70 guests in Jamaica, I realized I had a hidden niche and passion for organizing travel plans for others. I have worked in the customer service and satisfaction field for the majority of my young life. I am confident that my attention to detail, professional experience and dependability will be an asset to your next travel experience.

Whether your travel plans are for large or small groups, a romantic getaway with your significant other, leisure, luxury or business, I am here for you and am ready to get started! To get in touch with me and to see a list of my certifications, please visit: <http://www.worldtravelspecialists.biz/cvazquez>.

I have traveled internationally by air and sea to: Jamaica, Belize, Bahamas, Honduras, and Mexico. Aruba and the Dominican Republic are travel destinations in my near future.

State side I have traveled from New Hampshire to Key West, as far west as Tennessee with an upcoming trip to Oregon. Although I am born and raised in Delaware, I have a lot of family in Florida and consider it my second home. I have also enjoyed many day and overnight trips to New York City, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington D.C.
