

Sybil Terrence – Destination Specialist

In 2003, approaching my mid-thirties, a few of my best friend's married started families and relocated within the United States. I felt there was not enough time for "girlfriends" anymore. I decided to start up Annual Girls Trips just us no men, children and family included! We traveled to Cancun, LA, Las Vegas, Miami, and New Orleans.

In 2010, I became an independent travel agent for a local travel agency. During this journey, I completed a trip inspection for Royal Caribbean "Enchantment of the Sea's also Aruba. I loved the white-sand beaches, cooling trade of winds and warm, friendly people Aruba has to offer. The theme is One Happy Island and since it's located below the hurricane belt in the Southern Caribbean; Aruba has 82-degree days ALL year round.

2013 currently, I'm working as an agent for World Travel Specialists. My primary goal, I want to have annual group trips for upcoming Festivals throughout the US and Caribbean Islands. I'm here to service you! Live, Laugh and Love.
